

Anthony Anzalone

Anthony was a devoted husband and father, cherished brother and uncle and loyal, loving friend.

Tennis was one of his life's passions. He was an active member of The Tottenville Racquet Club and loved spending his time on the courts as well as socializing and making lasting memories with his friends.

He will be remembered for his kindness, humor and love of the game. This fundraiser honors his memory and the spirit that he brought to everyone around him.

